

Welcome, All.

Diversity and inclusion at Adelphi University, New York

In college, you want to feel welcomed, honored and respected—and that is our goal at Adelphi. In our classes, our Greek life, our student organizations, our mentoring, our athletics, our faculty and our leadership, Adelphi is committed to being a model of diversity.

For information, contact details and locations for all diversity programs, visit: myaulife.adelphi.edu

Committees Working on Diversity—Join Us!

Adelphi LGBTQ+ Task Force

Uses the Campus Pride Index Assessment Tool to identify areas of growth and new programs to accomplish this mission

Confidential Allies for DACA and Undocumented Students

To allay fears and provide students with the resources they need

Conversations on Race

Thoughtful dialogue across the University on racial issues in America

DACA, International and Immigration Task Force

Provides guidance, assistance, mentorship and support

Diversity Committee

Faculty, staff, administrators and students from all areas of the campus community

LGBTQ+ and Allies Committee

Initiatives and programs for acceptance and inclusion of the LGBTQ+ community

Universal Access Task Force

Identifies barriers inside and outside the classroom and seeks ways to improve physical access around campus

Call up. Walk in. Here's where you can go on campus to find out more about diversity on campus.

Office of Diversity and Inclusion

Adelphi University values and supports diversity to ensure that we are the model for a socially just and inclusive institution.

Perry Greene, Ph.D.

Vice President for Diversity and Inclusion
Nexus Building, Room 309
516.877.3713

Center for Student Involvement: Multicultural Affairs

Promotes an inclusive environment by offering programming that explores race, gender, sexual orientation, class and spiritual diversity.

Ruth S. Harley University Center, Room 110 multicultural@adelphi.edu
516.877.3603

Student Access Office

Ensures equal access to all of Adelphi University's programs, services and facilities for students with documented needs.

Post Hall, Room 107
sao@adelphi.edu
516.877.3806

Office of International Student Services

Promotes international awareness in the Adelphi community and assist you with immigration regulations and procedures.

Post Hall, Room 203
internationalstudentservices@adelphi.edu
516.877.4990

Get involved. Have fun. Be part of diversity at Adelphi.

Student Organizations for Diversity

- Adelphi Christian Fellowship
- American Sign Language Club
- Black Students United
- Chabad Jewish Student Group
- Females of Culture United for Success (FOCUS)
- Gender and Sexuality Alliance
- International Student Society
- Korean Entertainment Club
- Latino Student Association
- Mosaic—student club promoting multiculturalism and diversity
- Muslim Student Association
- Newman Club—Catholics for service and prayer
- Sikhs United
- South Asian Student Association
- Student Appreciation and Recognition of Adelphi Pinoys

Diversity in Our Multicultural Greek and Social Fellowships

Seven Greek organizations at Adelphi promote diversity, leadership and friendship; you can find one that fits your community or your passion.

Diversity at the Center for Recreation and Sports

Interested in Bollywood Dance, Bhangra, Hip Hop Dance or the Step Team? Join the fun.

Diversity in Learning Styles

- Bridges to Adelphi—assisting students on the autism spectrum, or with a nonverbal or neurosocial disorder
- Learning Resource Program
- Mentoring Program

Diverse Spaces and Places

- Center for African, Black and Caribbean Studies
- Homeplace, the Affinity Space for Students of Color
- Interfaith Center
- Veteran Resource Center

LGBTQ+ and Allies: At Home at Adelphi

- All-gender restrooms
- Gender-inclusive housing
- Lavender and Multicultural Graduation Celebration
- National Coming Out Day

Diversity in Our Athletics

- Athletic Diversity Council established 2018
- All athletes take our new diversity pledge.